Paine Denson, 1935.

1. My span of life will soon be gone, The pass-ing mo-ments say; As length'ning shad-ows o'er the mead Pro-claim the close of day. day.
2. My Christian friends to whom I speak, I have a crown in view; My sin-ner friends, now will you seek, How stands the case with you? you?

3. The love of Christ con-strain-eth me, Sin's e-vil ways to shun, And in the paths of right-eous-ness, My race with pa-tience run. run.
4. The cross of Christ in-spires my heart To sing re-deem-ing grace; A-wake, my soul, and bear a part In my Re-deem-er's praise. praise.

5. How long, dear Sav-ior, Oh, how long? Shall this bright hour de-lay? Fly swift a-round, ye wheels of time, And bring the prom-ised day. day.
6. When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shin-ing as the sun, We've no less days to sing God's praise, Than when we first be-gun. gun.
