

PARTING FRIENDS (Third). C.M.

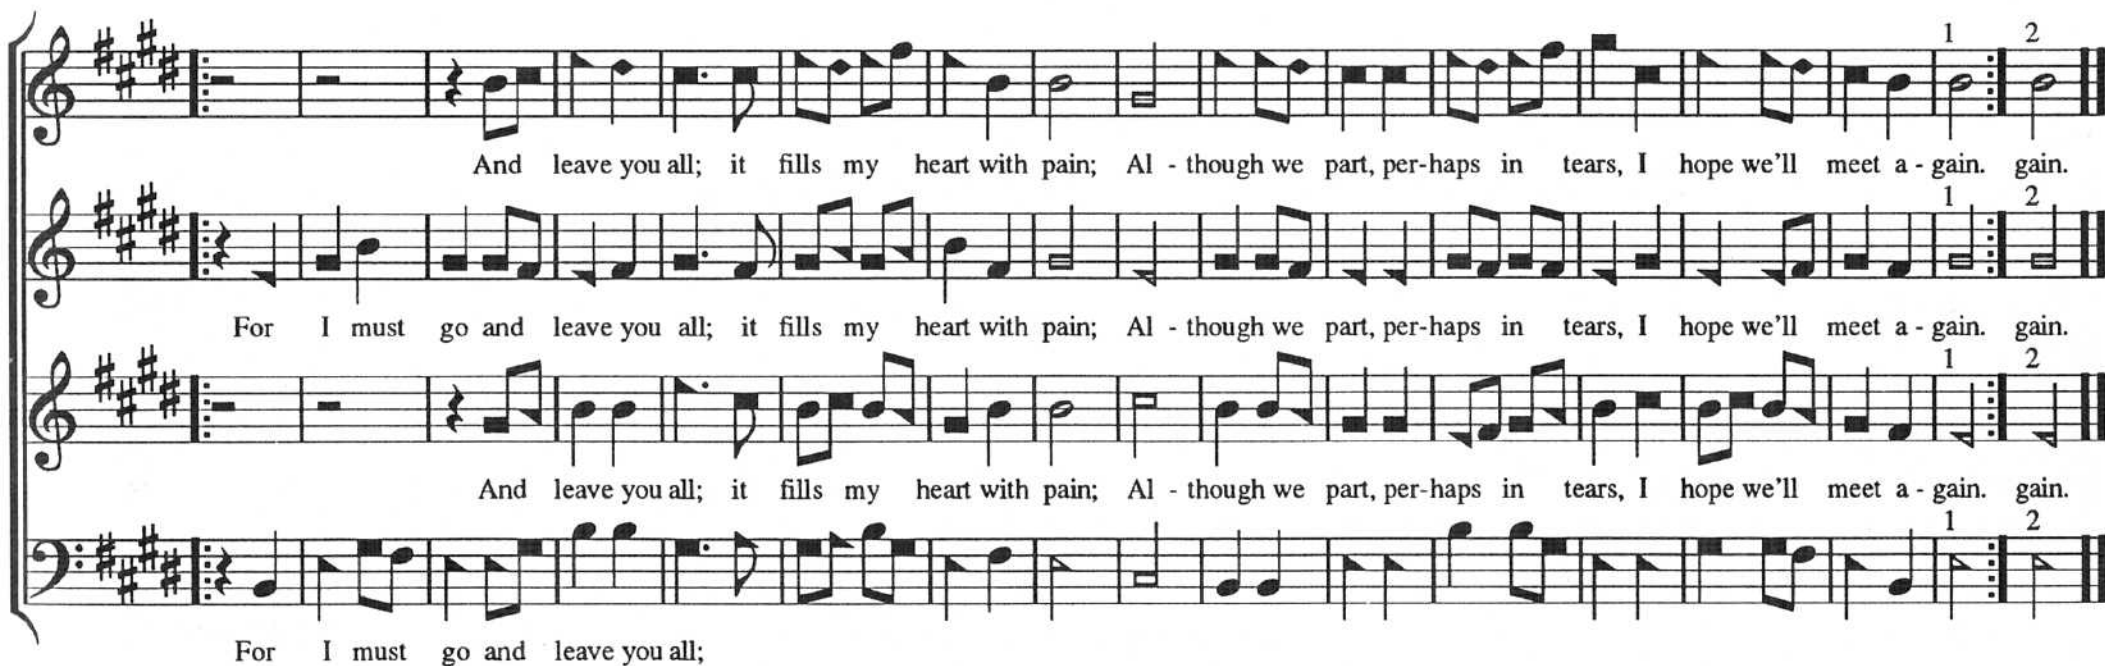

"Sing forth the honor of his name . . ." -- Ps. 66:2.

E Major Primitive Hymns, 1858.

R. A. Conant, 1959.

Our cheer-ful voic - es let us raise, And sing a part - ing song; Al- though I'm with you now, my friends, I can't be with you long.

And leave you all; it fills my heart with pain; Al - though we part, per-haps in tears, I hope we'll meet a - gain. gain.

For I must go and leave you all; it fills my heart with pain; Al - though we part, per-haps in tears, I hope we'll meet a - gain. gain.

And leave you all; it fills my heart with pain; Al - though we part, per-haps in tears, I hope we'll meet a - gain. gain.

For I must go and leave you all;
